MAILLOT ERABLE

Ophiopogon japonicus minor set of 40 pots

Ophiopogon japonicus minor

ref. 10060

160,00€

[+] Show on the website

Description

Perennial plant with evergreen leaves of 3/6 cm large and 0.2 width of a dark green. Flowering in summer with its pink-toned white bunches that give birth to fruits, similar to bright purple blueberries.

Tuft delivered in a small and flexible plastic pot, diameter or the small pot : 6 cm. Strong and dense tuft coming from dividing during its third cultivation year.

Set of 40 plastic pot.

Uncommon plant with bright leaves, used as well kusamono as flower bed in garden. Winter protection in very cold regions, in case of snow during winter the foliage becomes brown but grown again in spring. This species is usually very used for the making of japanese garden’s flower beds.

Last pitcure japanese garden scene for information.