Description

For the Passionate Collector

This unique bonsai, combining the multi-trunk and literati styles, is a true living work of art, perfect for discerning collectors. Its natural elegance, highlighted by the refinement of its trunks and the minimalist aspect of its literati form, conveys a powerful emotion. A rare tree that offers timeless beauty and strong aesthetic value. Tree Specifications: Total height: 830 mm Width: 920 mm Pot: Handcrafted unglazed ceramic, brown color, dimensions 490 x 390 x 130 mm Style: Sankan (3 trunks) with two deadwood trunks treated in shari Trunk diameters: 35 mm, 40 mm, and 60 mm Age: Over 70 years, grown from seed, with naturally small needles Nebari (visible root base): About 230 mm, with a magnificent base and perfectly developed roots Bark: Beautifully textured bark at the base of the trunks, emphasizing the maturity of the tree Description and Highlights: This tree has been meticulously cultivated under the guidance of Master SHIINO Kentaro, a renowned artisan recognized for his exceptional creations. Its three-trunk structure is perfectly balanced, and its remarkable taper highlights both the strength and grace of its form. With no major pruning scars and no visible wire marks, this bonsai reflects a high level of care, ensuring both its longevity and health. The tree requires full sun exposure. The stripped-down, minimalist character of its foliage and trunk is a hallmark of its style, where every detail has been carefully considered to achieve perfect harmony with nature. Photography: The tree was photographed in August 2025, showing its current condition, vigor, and beauty. Note: The bonsai is sold without a display stand.
