Description

Exceptional Bonsai – For the Passionate Collector

This unique bonsai, combining both the multi-trunk and literati styles, is a true living work of art, ideal for discerning collectors. Its natural elegance, highlighted by the graceful curvature of its trunks, conveys a strong emotional presence. A rare tree offering timeless beauty and exceptional aesthetic value.

Tree Characteristics: Total height: 930 mm Width: 850 mm

Pot: Handcrafted unglazed Japanese ceramic, chocolate brown, dimensions: 470 x 335 x 140 mm

Style: Sokan (two trunks) Trunk diameters: 50 mm and 70 mm Age: Over 80 years old, grown from seed, with naturally small needles.

Some branches have been cut back to enhance the tree's silhouette. The future owner will have the option either to remove them or to work them into deadwood.

Nebari: Approximately 270 mm, with a beautiful, well-developed root base. Bark Quality: Exceptional bark at the base of the trunks, reflecting the tree's age and maturity.

Description and Highlights: This tree has been carefully cultivated under the supervision of Master Murakawa, renowned for his exceptional creations. Its twin-trunk structure shows perfect balance, and the impressive taper emphasizes both strength and elegance. Free from major pruning scars and visible wire marks, this bonsai demonstrates expert care ensuring long-term health and longevity. Requires full sun. The refined, minimalist appearance of its foliage and structure is characteristic of its style, where every detail is intended to create perfect harmony with nature.

Photography: Photographed in November 2025, showing its current condition, vigor, and refined silhouette.

Note: Bonsai sold without a display stand.
